If you do so, Internet and telephone service charges may apply. Some changes to your computer components or the software may require you to reactivate the software. THE SOFTWARE WILL REMIND YOU TO ACTIVATE IT UNTIL YOU DO.

5. VALIDATION.

- a. The software will from time to time request download of the validation feature of the software. Validation verifies that the software has been activated and is properly licensed. A validation check confirming that you are properly licensed permits you to use the software, certain features of the software or to obtain additional benefits. For more information, see www.microsoft.com/genuine/office/WhyValidate.aspx.
- b. During or after a validation check, the software may send information about the software, the device and the results of the validation check to Microsoft. This information includes, for example, the version and product key of the software and the Internet protocol address of the licensed device. Microsoft does not use the information to identify or contact you. BY USING THE SOFTWARE, YOU CONSENT TO THE TRANSMISSION OF THIS INFORMATION. For more information about validation and what is sent during or after a validation check, see www.microsoft.com/genuine/office/PrivacyInfo.aspx.
- c. If, after a validation check, the software is found to be counterfeit, improperly licensed, or a non-genuine Office product then the functionality or experience of using the software may be affected. For example,
Microsoft may
  - provide notice that the software is improperly licensed or a non-genuine Office product;and you may
  - receive reminders to obtain a properly licensed copy of the software; or
  - need to follow Microsoft's instructions to be licensed to use the software and reactivate;and you may not be able to

  - obtain certain updates or upgrades from Microsoft.

6. INTERNET-BASED SERVICES.

Microsoft provides Internet-based services with the software. It may change or cancel them at any time.

- a. Consent for Internet-Based Services. The software features described below and in the Office 2010 Privacy Statement connect to Microsoft or service provider computer systems over the Internet. In some cases, you will not receive a separate notice when they connect. In some cases, you may switch off these features or not use them. For more information about these features, see the Office 2010 Privacy Statement at r.office.microsoft.com/r/rlidOOClientPrivacyStatement14?clid=1033. BY USING THESE FEATURES,

YOU CONSENT TO THE TRANSMISSION OF THIS INFORMATION. Microsoft does not use the information to identify or contact you.

Computer Information. The following features use Internet protocols, which send to the appropriate systems computer information, such as your Internet protocol address, the type of operating system, browser and name and version of the software you are using, and the language code of the device where you installed the software. Microsoft uses this information to make the Internet-based services available to you.

- Web Content Features. Features in the software can retrieve related content from Microsoft and provide it to you. Examples of these features are clip art, templates, online training, online assistance and help. You may choose not to use these web content features.
- Digital Certificates. The software uses digital certificates. These digital certificates confirm the identity of Internet users sending X.509 standard encrypted information. They also can be used to digitally sign files and macros to verify the integrity and origin of the file contents. The software retrieves certificates and updates certificate revocation lists using the Internet, when available.
- SharePoint Workspace. If the software includes Microsoft SharePoint Workspace ("SharePoint Workspace"), SharePoint Workspace will allow you to communicate directly with others over the Internet. If you cannot communicate directly with a contact over the Internet, and your administrator uses Microsoft's public server infrastructure, your communications will be encrypted and sent through Microsoft servers for later delivery. You cannot disable this service if your administrator uses Microsoft's public server infrastructure.

SharePoint Workspace makes some information about your SharePoint Workspace account and device known to your approved contacts. For example, if you:

- add a contact to your contact list,
- import your user account onto a new device,
- update the information in your "identity contact", or
- send a SharePoint Workspace invitation using an URL to reference the invitation file, information about you and your devices may be sent to your contacts. If you configure SharePoint Workspace to use Microsoft servers, those servers will collect information about your device and user accounts.

- b. Automatic Update. Software with Click-to-Run technology may periodically check with Microsoft for updates and supplements to the software. If found, these updates and supplements might be automatically downloaded and installed on your licensed device.
  - c. Use of Information. Microsoft may use the device information, error reports, and malware reports to improve our software and services. We may also share it with others, such as hardware and software vendors. They may use the information to improve how their products run with Microsoft software.
  - d. Misuse of Internet-based Services. You may not use these services in any way that could harm them or impair anyone else's use of them. You may not use the services to try to gain unauthorized access to any service, data, account or network by any means.
7. SCOPE OF LICENSE. The software is licensed, not sold. This agreement only gives you some rights to use the features included in the software edition you licensed. Licensor and Microsoft reserve all other rights. Unless applicable law gives you more rights despite this limitation, you may use the software only as expressly permitted in this agreement. In doing so, you must comply with any technical limitations in the software that only allow you to use it in certain ways. You may not
